LEVEL 1 & 2 AIRCREW SURVIVAL FIELD TRAINING EXERCISE

Date: 28 February – 01 March 2020

Location: Chilliwack, BC

All cadets of 111 Pegasus RCACS are required to attend at least one weekend field training exercise each training year, as it is part of their mandatory training to pass their level. Cadets will learn survival skills such as: how to build a shelter, how to collect water, how to build a fire and signal fires, map and compass and many more.

Drop off: Bessborough Armoury, 1615hrs on Friday 28 Feb 2020

Pick up: Bessborough Armoury, 1430hrs on Sunday, 01 Mar 2020

Parents are expected to drop off and pick up their cadet(s) on time. Cases not in compliance indicate parental neglect and appropriate measures will be taken. Parents/Guardians are advised in advance that persistent disciplinary problems will not be tolerated. The parents/guardians of such cadets will be contacted and arrangements will be made to return your cadets home.

The following items are prohibited on the exercise

- Non-prescription drugs
- Guns or other firearms (including toys)
- Fireworks and other pyrotechnics
- Hatchets/axes, sheath knives
- Alcohol and cigarettes/tobacco/e-cigarette/vaping products
- Portable gaming devices

If cadets are found to be in possession of mentioned items above, they will be confiscated. Cadets found using these items may face disciplinary action.

The squadron is not responsible for the lost of any electronics brought on the exercise.

In the event of an emergency and you need to contact your son/daughter/ward during the exercise, parents/guardians should call the 111 Pegasus Squadron Duty Phone number listed above.
